1. THE STORY

xSPACE MILITIA

In order to understand more about space travel and the universe, multiple animals were shot into space between the 1930's and 1970. These animals were national heroes, and became the face of space travel during this time. These animals were Ham, a heroic chimpanzee, Laika the trustworthy dog and Felix the stray cat.

Most of these animals never returned, since these space flights were a one-way ticket and the space crafts had no way of safely returning to earth anyway. And so, they were declared dead and we moved on. But did we actually have proof of their deaths and where did these animals really go when they were shot into the atmosphere?

Space pirates is the untold story of the animals we carelessly shot into space and then abandoned, only for them to be found by a mysterious woman who helped them to evolve and find their own unique way of existing. When Millie, a rebelling space princess ventures out on her own, she comes across wormholes suddenly opening and dropping unknown spacecrafts, more and more every time. In them, she finds companions to help her in her mission to save the universe.

2. WHAT ARE NFTS

A non-fungible token is a unique and non-interchangeable unit of data that is generally encoded with the same underlying software as many cryptos. It represents real-world objects like art, music, in-game items and videos. The unique identifying codes of an NFT creates digital scarcity and gives the holder a verified and public proof of ownership which becomes more valuable as we enter the age of metaverses.

3. WHY ARE WE CHOOSING THE XRPL?

The XRPL is set to support NFTs and smart contract features through federated side-chain integration and we couldn't be more excited. As a result of the exponential growth in the decentralized finance industry, Ripple is looking to fulfill the high demand of features requested by developers and contributors of the XRPL. This request includes the demand for smart contract capabilities. The XRPL delivers a unique combination of low cost, high speed and good payments features which works excellent for NFT creation at scale. Unlike the Ethereum blockchain or the Binance Smart Chain, the XRPL has the ability to maintain very low transaction fees while also being scalable which benefits both the buyers and sellers of NFTs. We believe that the XRPL will play a prominent role in the growing NFT space.

4. OUR VISION

As a team we are diligently working towards becoming a prominent platform in the XRP NFT space. By focusing on originality and constant improvements to both our 2D and 3D assets, we strive to fully integrate our digital avatars within the upcoming metaverse. As hustlers with a gaming background, we have always dreamed of the opportunity to one day earn passive income while playing video games. This has recently become a possible reality with the development of blockchain technology. As such, we are hiring game-developers to make an official Billieverse Play-to-Earn game, where you can earn cryptocurrencies while leveling up your character. More information coming soon.
